1. [REDACTED] Per her request, I sent to Sandy Auman, on the staff of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee, the publication entitled "A Handbook of Tutorials From the Office of Scientific Intelligence." This material is to be used by Mr. Grenville Garside, Committee Staff Director, who asked for this material to supplement his knowledge on nuclear energy.

[REDACTED]
Evans left open the possibilities of pre-trip briefings for each trip. I strongly recommend one for the Moscow trip. Evans also indicated that the Senator's personal staff member Casimir Yost would be traveling with him and that he had asked to review any relevant NFAC publications of the last six months on these countries prior to the trip.

12. [REDACTED] BRIEFING Jim Fellenbaum, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, relayed a request from George Patten, Legislative Assistant to Senator Lawton Chiles (D., Fla.), for a briefing of the Senator on the recent newspaper story about Soviet MIG-23s in Cuba. The Senator apparently has an urgent need for this information. On advice of [REDACTED] NFAC/CSS, I called Patten and told him we would be happy to provide any information there is to the Senator and asked if it was urgent enough to consider sending someone down to Florida. He said he would call back.

13. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Duane Andrews, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence staff, who requested a briefing for himself and Martin Faga, also of the Committee staff, on the numbers of supergrades in the Intelligence Community. They are commencing a study of this subject as a result of the 1979 budget hearings. The meeting is set for 9 November with representatives from the Office of Personnel and the Comptroller's office.

15. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met with Tom Latimer and Loch Johnson, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence staff, in response to their follow up request in connection with some of the basic essentials relating to the 1 November 1978 Presidential Finding. Latimer is not confident that they could obtain approval of a reprogramming request in the near future because of the absence of Members.

16. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met with Jack Brady, Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee, in response to his request in connection with some of the basic essentials relating to the 1 November 1978 Presidential Finding. He foresaw no problems.

17. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met with Jim Fellenbaum, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, in response to his request in connection with some of the basic essentials relating to the 1 November 1978 Presidential Finding. He seriously questioned the reprogramming aspects of the proposal.

1. [REDACTED] BRIEFING Mike Glennon, Legal Counsel, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, visited Headquarters for a briefing on the Agency's liaison relationships with foreign intelligence services. The briefing was given by John Stein A/DDO. Also present throughout the briefing were [REDACTED] PCS/LOC, and myself.

2. [REDACTED] LIAISON Jack Ticer, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, called concerning the listing of Agency classified documents which our records indicate were provided to the Committee during this year and which were sent at his request. Ticer is reviewing intelligence documents in Committee files to determine which should be returned to CIA and other agencies. It was agreed that he will let me know which CIA documents are no longer needed by the Committee and we will have them picked up.

4. [REDACTED] LIAISON Talked to Thomas Latimer, Staff Director, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, about his 31 October letter to Frederick P. Hitz, Legislative Counsel, regarding the Career Trainee program. I told Mr. Latimer that it would take at least two weeks to do the research necessitated by the letter and asked him how serious he was about it. He told me that he regarded this information as critical to the needs of the Committee, with regard to charter legislation as well as other matters. I assured him that we would fill his needs and have passed the substance of his interests on to [REDACTED] Chief of Operational Training, OTR.
